

Saiyed Mohammad Mahmudul Hasan Saurav

Software Engineer

Profile

I'm very passionate in my field and also a challenger. I like to check out new things and work on them until I mastered them. Also, I have the ability to work in any environment to make myself adapted in any place. As a self-learner all my skill are grown by me which also helped others by sharing with them. Now all I want a platform where I can perform my skills and benefit others also help me with skill which I'm missing. Working in hard difficult condition or pressure has always been my plus point. My confidence is the key that help me in every situation.
